Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-3, 7-16, and 19 are allowed.

Claims 4-6 and 17-18 were canceled by Applicant.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 10, and 15 include the limitation of the power-up pull source sequentially coupling the power-up pull resistors to a source voltage and then coupling the power-up pull resistors to a common voltage in response to a system power-up condition, which is not shown by the prior art of record in the combination as disclosed and claimed.

Claims 9 and 19 include the limitation of the state circuitry applying the control signal to the control input of the bus distribution circuit upon an occurrence of an acknowledge bit in the selection message, which is not shown by the prior art of record in the combination as disclosed and claimed.

The examiner interpreted the claims in light of the specification and in view of Applicant's persuasive argument that "The I2C Spec does not disclose forcing a number of outputs of a distribution controller to a source voltage to a common voltage in response to a start-up condition. Such control of the voltage outputs of the distribution controller in response to a power-up condition ensures that those serial devices that are not coupled directly to the serial bus (SDA) by the bus distribution circuit are placed in a state where they will wait for further action" (page 10 of the Remarks), and "when the control signal is applied to the control input of the bus distribution circuit, the serial bus SDA is switched from a first one of the serial devices to a second one of the serial devices. When the selection of the serial devices occurs in such manner, it is not possible for a serial device involved in the switching to transmit an acknowledgement..." (page 13 of the Remarks).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
